

Goa E-newspaper Template

Sunday 20 may 2024

Heatwave intensifies in Europe

Several European countries are battling scorching temperatures as a heatwave continues to grip the region. Wildfires have broken out in Portugal, Spain, and France, forcing evacuations.

Sri Lanka to lift state of emergency

Sri Lanka is set to lift its state of emergency later this week, imposed in April amid an economic and political crisis. The government is facing pressure to find solutions to the ongoing shortages of food, fuel, and medicine.

James Webb Space Telescope captures stunning views of Jupiter

The James Webb Space Telescope has captured new, detailed images of Jupiter, showcasing the gas giant's atmosphere and auroras. The images reveal previously unseen details about the planet's storms and weather systems.